

India celebrates the Republic Day every year on the 26th of January from 1950 when Constitution of India came into force. Republic day in India is of the great importance in the history as it tells us all about each and every struggle of Indian freedom. People who were fighting for Independence of India took a pledge on the same day in 1930 at the banks of Ravi river in the Lahore to achieve a complete independence (means Poorna Swarajya) of India. Which came true a day in 1947 on 15th of August.

On 26th of January in 1950 our country, India was declared as a Sovereign, Secular, Socialistic and Democratic Republic means people of India has the power to govern the country themselves. It is celebrated by organizing a big event with special parade at the Rajpath, New Delhi in the presence of President of India by unfolding the National Flag and singing the National Anthem.
